Forrest Bird Charter Schools recognize its responsibility to provide a free and appropriate public education (FAPE) to eligible students with disabilities within its geographical boundaries. The District has a "child find" process that is designed to locate, identify, and evaluate children with disabilities residing within its geographical boundaries preschool age through grade 12 or through age 21 if they have not received a high school diploma. Child Find activities run throughout the year.

If you know a child who attends Forrest Bird Charter Schools and may be in the need of special education and/or related services, please contact FBC's Director of Special Education, Kenda Russell, for further information regarding the referral and evaluation process.

The District's Child Find process extends to students with physical or mental impairments that substantially limit a major life activity. Such students may be eligible for services or accommodations pursuant to Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act. Section 504 is a Federal Civil Rights statute that prohibits discrimination against persons with disabilities and programs receiving Federal financial assistance. Please contact your student's Educational Leader for more information regarding Section 504 eligibility and services.

The Forrest M. Bird Charter School is open to all children, on a space available basis. The school does not discriminate based on race, creed, color, gender, national origin, or ancestry. Students will not be denied enrollment due to a parent, guardian or sponsor declining involvement in the charter school. Special needs will not be a factor in admission decisions.

Welcome to Forrest M. Bird Charter High School and the 2017-2018 school year!

With each new school year comes new experiences. You will meet new people, learn new concepts, and participate in new activities. You will encounter teachers and staff members who care about you and your education now and in the future, and who care about you, as a person.

FBCHS believes in creating rigorous, relevant classroom experiences for you. By completing collaborative project-infused assignments and assessments around real-life experiences and in-depth explorations into the different subjects, you will find yourself well-prepared for life beyond high school. In addition to this, you are encouraged to participate in Dual College Credit classes when you are ready. By taking a college course at FBCHS, you will have additional support as well develop important skills allowing you to be feel more comfortable and experience success at the college level.

While attending FBCHS, you will enjoy the small school atmosphere. Class sizes allow for teachers to be more available to help you when necessary, and these teachers will get to know you as a person, not just a number or just a “student”. Also, the small school community allows for an atmosphere of respect for all community members and property.

This handbook will help guide your understanding in the operations and expectations of the school. Please read it carefully. If you have any questions during the school year, please ask. Your teachers, advisory leaders, and I are here to help you have the best year possible.

Have a wonderful year full of learning and fun,

About FBCS

Mission Statement

The mission of Forrest M. Bird Charter School, a public school incorporating middle and high school grade levels, is to create a community of learners equipped with two kinds of literacy.

1. The ability to read, to write, speaks and calculates with clarity and precision, incorporating technology.
2. The ability to participate passionately and responsibly in the life of their community.

To fulfill this mission we:

- Limit our community to approximately 50 students at each of the middle and high school grade levels, 6-12 (prospective enrollment of 350 students, not to exceed 400 total). (Actual grade level enrollments may vary) Provide each student with at least one positive adult adviser/advocate to support student success.
- Provide students access to innovative pathways, maximizing their post-secondary academic and career opportunities.
- Facilitate a positive and safe community culture by fostering accountability through high behavioral standards and academic success through integration and project-based learning.
- Focus on student-family-teacher relationships.

- Embrace the needs of the student body as the primary focus of our school; therefore encouraging individuality.
- Work in collaborative relationships within and outside of the school to promote leadership and mentoring partnerships, and service the greater community.
- Actively encourage creativity and fun within our school.

Philosophy of Education

Beliefs: It is not possible to change significantly what happens in the schools unless you change significantly the nature of the human relationships that form the educational process. (Olds & Pearlman, Designing the New American School)

The truly educated person is one who understands relationships, both academic and personal. By providing a more personal school with smaller class sizes, students can develop relationships with peers, parents, teachers, and community members. By implementing engaging teaching methods, students will have access to their own knowledge and be enabled to integrate their thoughts thus achieving higher levels of thinking.

We are committed to the belief that education is a life-long process in which the classroom is only one arena. Learning best occurs in a creative but disciplined environment, and through the involvement of parents and community members, we can develop a larger community of learners.

Procedures

Admissions

In January of each school year, a letter will be sent to currently enrolled families asking them to indicate whether they will be returning or not to FBCS. From these numbers, FBCS then determines availability for new students in that coming school year. An Open Enrollment period will begin in February and run through the end of March. Families are asked to submit an ‘application’ within this time frame. Early submission does not necessarily guarantee admissions to the school. At the end of March, families with guaranteed enrollment will be notified. Sometimes there is a need to hold a lottery for student enrollment in certain grade levels; specifically, this occurs when there are more applicants than there is availability in that grade level.

If a lottery does need to be held, three lottery pools and three waiting lists will be established per grade level if needed. List 1 will contain all students who have a sibling currently enrolled with FBCS. List 2 will be those students residing within the authorized district (LPOSD). List 3 will be those students residing outside the district. The lottery will be open to all, will not rely on computers, and will be easily understood and followed by all observers. All students whose applications received by the application deadline entered into the lottery. A drawing of names by grade will be held until all spaces are filled. Once all spaces are filled the drawing will continue to establish a waiting list. Students whose applications are received after the deadline will be placed on the list in the order their applications were received.

Once a student is notified of their enrollment, the following forms must be completed and received by the school office for the enrollment to be finalized:

- Student Application
- Student Records/ Transcripts from Previous School (if applicable)
- Birth Certificate
- Immunization Records/ Exempt of Immunization Form

If these forms are not received by the designated time/date, the student risks forfeiting their enrollment with FBCS.

Academics

Curriculum

Our curriculum is comprised of 5 components:

Core Curriculum:

This area of the curriculum contains all course work that is consecutive in nature. English (written, verbal and reading), Math, Science and Social Studies are included in this category. Grade level curriculum and standards are defined by the State of Idaho although students may be placed at different levels.

Project-Based Curriculum:

This area integrates classes as needed to create meaningful and relevant projects. These classes are designed to be active, participatory and engaging. Students may be placed in working groups and be tasked to work together to create projects. Most evaluation of these projects will be through portfolio development and presentation.

Elective Curriculum:

Elective offerings are dependent on staff availability and student interest. Classes may include Foreign Languages, Art, Band, Drama, Journalism, Photography, Technology, Cooking, Science, Social Studies and many more. Independent and WorkElectives are also an option for high school students. Please contact the school for more information on electives as the offerings change each year and each trimester.

Advisory:

All students and faculty will meet in Advisory groups at the beginning of each day. This class is used to establish relationships with the students as people; learning communication and organizational skills, appropriate behavior, accountability and school culture. This class is also used for reading time, checking on homework and college planning. Forrest M. Bird Charter School devotes this time each day to nurturing a positive school culture and helping our students succeed.

Your student's advisory teacher serves as the primary communicator for questions about your student.

Early College Access:

All students attending Forrest M. Bird Charter school will have the opportunity to become Dual Credit students in high school. Dual Credit students take college courses for high school credit as well as allowing students to have a jump start to their college education while in high school. Various programs offered by the Department of Education are utilized in order for students to reach their advanced opportunity goals.

Conferences

4 Year Plan:

Each High School student will, within the 1st trimester, develop an educational plan with his or her parents/guardian and a faculty member. These plans will stem from student generated educational goals and post-secondary goals. The purpose of the 4 year plan is to help guide the student towards post-secondary goals. These conferences are student driven; students and parents must attend.

Your student's advisory teacher serves as the primary communicator for questions about the student. However, other teachers may call, email or talk with you about specific subjects or issues. All of the teachers are available via email or by phone. Our teachers are generally available after school hours until 3:30 pm if you need to meet with them.

Parent/Teacher Conferences:

Parent/ Teacher conferences will be held during first and second trimester. Parents are encouraged to come and meet each of their student's teachers to ask questions, discuss progress, identify and possible issues and hear positive aspects towards their student's learning.

Communications:

All parents have access to their student's Canvas pages, where they may check grades and communicate with the teachers through the Canvas communication tool. All of the teachers are available via email or by phone. Teachers may call, email or talk with you about specific subjects or issues. Our teachers are generally available after school hours until 3:30 pm if you need to meet with them.

Grading

Scale

We believe in students reaching a proficiency level in their work. Students receiving a score less than 70% will receive a No Credit [NC] or Incomplete [I] mark on their report cards. Every effort will be made to assist students who are not reaching proficiency levels.

100-98% A+

97-94%	A
93-90%	A-
89-87%	B+
86-84%	B
83-80%	B-
79-77%	C+
76-74%	C
73-70%	C-
69-0%	NC

Incomplete

Our teachers are committed to ensuring that our students gain the knowledge they will need for life outside our walls. If a student is struggling to show mastery of a subject, their grade will reflect this struggle. In an effort to allow students time to work towards mastery, the teacher has the option of issuing an “Incomplete”. If the student receives an “Incomplete”, he/she will then receive a certain amount of time to either finish or master course work. Once the student has completed the work, the teacher will then issue the appropriate grade and the student will earn credit for the class.

No Credit

At Forrest M. Bird Charter School, ‘below average’ grades (anything below 70%) will not earn a student credit. The grade the student receives in this case is a “No Credit” or NC. If a student receives an NC for a class, the student will need to take the class again in order to earn credit for the class. Unfortunately, every attempt a student makes to earn credit in a class is factored into the calculation of the student’s overall GPA and can have a negative effect on the student’s high school transcript.

Student Retention

The administrator and teacher may consider retention when a student does not meet the following stated high school credits for grade promotion.

- Freshman: 0-15
- Sophomore: 16-30 credits
- Junior: 31-45 or more credits
- Senior: 46 - 60 credits

Report Cards and Progress Reports

Report cards will be issued approximately one week after the end of each trimester. High School progress reports will be sent home once a trimester.

Academic Integrity/Dishonesty

Forrest M. Bird expects all students to abide by ethical academic standards in order to help prepare students for real world college and work situations. Academic dishonesty—including plagiarism, cheating or copying the work of another, using technology for illicit purposes, or any unauthorized communication between students for the purpose of gaining advantage during an examination—is strictly prohibited. Academic Integrity covers all school-related tests, quizzes, reports, class assignments, and projects, both in and out of class.

Plagiarism is not the same as cooperation or collaboration. Teachers often expect, even encourage, students to work on assignments collectively. Collaboration is encouraged at FBCS, as long as whose work being presented is clearly relayed.

- Collaboration is to work together (with permission) in a joint intellectual effort.
- Plagiarism is to commit literary theft; to steal and pass off as one's own ideas or words, and to create the production of another. When you use someone else's words, you must put quotation marks around them and give the writer or speaker credit by citing the source. Even if you revise or paraphrase the words of someone else, if you use someone else's ideas you must give the author credit. Some Internet users believe that anything available on-line is public domain. Such is not the case. Ideas belong to those who create and articulate them. To use someone else's words or ideas without giving credit to the originator is stealing. For the most part, FBCS uses the MLA citation style.
- Cheating includes, but is not limited to, copying or giving an assignment to a student to be copied (unless explicitly permitted by the teacher). Cheating also includes using, supplying, or communicating in any way unauthorized materials, including textbooks, notes, calculators, computers or other unauthorized technology, during an exam or project.
- Forgery or stealing includes, but is not limited to, gaining unauthorized access to exams or answers to an exam, altering computer or grade-book records, or forging signatures for the purpose of academic advantage.

The determination that a student has engaged in academic dishonesty shall be based on specific evidence provided by the classroom teacher or other supervising professional employee, taking into consideration written materials, observation, or information from others.

Students found to have engaged in academic dishonesty shall be subject to disciplinary as well as academic penalties. Teachers may have the discretion to the consequences of the first offence, which may include a zero on the assignment or In School Suspension (ISS). On the second offense, the student will be referred to administration and may face earning a zero on the assignment or the class and spending at the least one day ISS. Parents will be notified in all academic dishonesty incidents.

Extra activities / Athletics

Participation

Although Forrest M. Bird Charter School does not have formal extra-curricular activities, FBCS recognizes the importance of learning activities outside of the regular classroom day. Students will be permitted to participate in school athletics with another school district with the permission of that school district.

Forrest M. Bird Charter School will follow all current and subsequent eligibility requirements for participation in interscholastic activities, as set forth by the Idaho High School Activities Association (IHSAA). All students wishing to participate in extracurricular activities must meet the eligibility requirements for that activity, as established by the Idaho High School Activities Association (IHSAA).

Students participating in LPOSD extracurricular activities, including athletics and competitive clubs, will comply with LPOSD extra-curricular policies, which are designed to allow the maximum benefit from participation in the extracurricular activities, as well as FBCS's additional eligibility requirements.

In addition to the IHSAA academic requirements, students who participate in competitive extra-curricular activities will need to have passing grades during designated school-wide grade checks during the trimester period. Students are to be passing all classes during these school-wide grade checks in order to compete in competition. If a student becomes ineligible during a school-wide grade check, the student may become eligible if he/she is passing all courses at the next school-wide grade check period. These grade check periods will be determined before the student start date of each school year.

Participation during the School Day

When students participate in extra-curricular activities during the school day and miss classes they must meet additional eligibility requirements as outlined herein.

Extra-curricular activities are activities outside of or in addition to the regular academic courses or curriculum of the school.

Schools are provided primarily to educate students through the classroom curriculum and instruction. As such, it is expected that students will first be responsible for the requirements of the classroom. Extra-curricular opportunities are a natural extension of classroom activities and student participation is encouraged as long as it does not interfere with the primary function of the school and the student's learning.

To participate during the school day in extra-curricular activities a student must first demonstrate that they have satisfied the primary intent of school and are performing satisfactorily in the specific classes they will miss. A student will be declared eligible to participate during the school day in extra-curricular activities on a course by course basis for those courses that he/she will miss. For any class, or portion of a class, missed during the school day for an extra-curricular activity, the student must demonstrate that he/she is currently passing the class with a grade of "C" or better and have no unresolved behavioral referral. The grade must be determined two days before the trip. If it cannot be demonstrated that the student is satisfactorily passing his/her class and demonstrating proper deportment, he/she will be declared ineligible and will not be allowed to participate or attend during the school day in the extra-curricular event until the student is receiving a "C" and/or has resolved any behavioral referrals.

Enforcement

Forrest M. Bird Charter School will notify participating school district the eligibility of student athletes participating in the school district's athletics after each school-wide grade check period as well as on a trimester basis.

Advanced Opportunities

All students that meet the state and college requirements will have the opportunity to become Dual Credit students in high school. Dual Credit students take college courses for high school credit (in addition to the college credits they earn) as well as allowing students the jump start to their college education while in high school. Various programs offered by the Department of Education are utilized in order for students to reach advanced opportunity goals.

Fast Forward

The Fast Forward program provides every student attending an Idaho public school an allocation of $4,125.00 to use towards Advanced Opportunities in grades 7-12. The program was expanded by the Legislature in 2016 through the passing of House Bill 458. The funds can be used for:

- Overload Courses

An overload course is a high school level course that is taken in excess of the student's regular school day. These courses are offered online, during the summertime, and after school. In the event that student incurs a cost for such courses, the Fast Forward program can pay up to $225.00 for the cost of the course. Overload courses must be above and beyond the full course load offered by the student's local school.

- Dual Credits

Dual credit are courses taken by high school students that are transcribed on their high school and college transcripts. The Fast Forward program can pay for up to $75.00 per credit, and in most cases, the cost of these credits is $65.00.

Additional information regarding the Fast Forward program can be obtained at the state site: <http://www.sde.idaho.gov/student-engagement/advanced-ops/> as well as contacting the school Academic Advisor.

Attendance

Regular attendance is a critical component for success in school. Parents are requested to schedule family vacations during school vacation periods. A student is expected to be in attendance except when ill or when unable to attend because of emergency circumstances or a death in the family or severe illness. When students are absent from school, it is critical that proper arrangements are made for the absence and that responsibility is taken for appropriate reentry into school. Too many absences can affect student performance and their ability to move forward in grade levels. Absences in the following categories will be handled as indicated:

Excused Absences

In order for an absence to be excused for any reason, the parent must notify the school. A telephone call the day of the absence is preferred, but a written note the first day back in class is acceptable as long as the note includes the date returning, child's name, dates absent, and the reason for the absence. School work that is missed will be allowed to be made up for excused absences

Unexcused Absences

Any absence for which the school does not receive appropriate notification will be unexcused. Students may receive no credit for assignments on the days of unexcused absences. Unexcused absences are considered to be truant. A student who is found to be habitually truant will be referred to the school board, and will face possible expulsion. Habitually truant students who are of the compulsory attendance age will also be report to the local authorities, as per 33-206 of Idaho State Law.

Excessive Absences

Any student who misses more than 10 days in a trimester or 20 days per school year will be reviewed for retention in the current grade level the following school year and/or removal from the school. The school reserves the right, should a student exceed these limits, to require the parents to submit, in writing, an explanation detailing the absences and the justification of each absence.

Prearranged Absences

The parents will need to notify the school office, in writing, of any prearranged absences. Arrangements will need to be made with the child's teacher for school work that will be missed.

Makeup Work

For scheduled absences, arrangements for makeup work must be made in advance with at least an equal number of days advance notice as the number of days of planned absence. This allows the teachers to prepare.

Tardiness

Students arriving after 8:00 a.m. will be considered tardy.

Expectations of Student Behavior

Creating a Safe Learning Environment:

To achieve the best possible learning environment for all our students, Forrest Bird Charter School rules and discipline will apply:

- On, or within sight of, school grounds before, during or after school hours or at any other time when the school is being used by a school group.

- Off school grounds at a school sponsored activity or event, or any activity or event that bears a reasonable relationship to school.
- Traveling to and from school or a school activity, function or event; and
- Anywhere, if the conduct is deemed unreasonable by a staff member, or interferes with school purposes or an educational function.

Respect for you, your curiosity and knowledge:

The teachers at FBCS are passionate, highly qualified and dedicated professionals who care about the success of their students. They will facilitate ideas for independent projects, courses, or electives. Teachers will also accommodate individual plans towards post-secondary success.

Curriculum that is challenging and at your level:

Classes are designed for students to be challenging and rigorous, so students gain academic skills. Actual progress is up to the student and will be part of the educational plan. Teachers assign homework regularly. The intent of homework is to supplement schoolwork and enhance learning. Homework may include research, worksheets, reading assignments, or project based activities.

Respect for teachers or staff:

The teachers and the staff of Forrest Bird Charter School invest their time and energy in providing a safe and educational environment to all students. Students are expected to comply with legitimate instructions and cooperate with teachers and staff. At no time will disrespect for staff be tolerated.

Respect for other students:

The students of Forrest Bird Charter School have the responsibility to:

- Respect the right of others to express their views and the rights to express views through speaking and writing, but without being obscene, disruptive, slanderous or libelous;
- Behave respectfully during patriotic observances;
- Respect the religious beliefs of others and to refrain from activities that hold religious beliefs up to ridicule and the rights to have one's religious beliefs respected;
- Refrain from sexual harassment and the right to be protected from sexual harassment;
- Respects others' personal property and the right to have personal property respected
- Know and obey school behavioral expectations and to report unsafe situations to school or law enforcement personnel and the right to feel safe from crime, violence, intimidation, bullying, harassment, racism and other discrimination in the school.

Public Displays of Affection (PDA)

A goal of FBCS is to introduce students to a more professional environment. Because of this, PDA is limited to what is appropriate to the professional world. Actions such as hand holding, long hugs, and/or kissing will not be tolerated. In an initial offense, students will be educated on what is appropriate in FBCS and other professional arenas and appropriate consequences will occur. Repeat offenders will receive additional consequences.

Student Discipline

Respect and responsibility are the key values that we teach in our school. You are responsible for your own conduct and are expected to contribute positively to the environment of our school. There are consequences for violating the student conduct and discipline code. Each consequence will depend on the violation and whether the violation is a first offense or a repeated act. The FBCS principal and staff will attempt to solve problems informally before proceeding to the next level of consequences. Consequences for inappropriate behavior may include, but are not limited to the following:

- Apology
- Conferencing
- Calling home
- Detention
- Peer mediation
- Out of school suspension
- Expulsion
- Behavior Review Board hearing

To achieve the best possible learning environment for all our students, Forrest Bird Charter School rules and discipline will apply:

- On, or within sight of, school grounds before, during or after school hours or at any other time when the school is being used by a school group.
- Off school grounds at a school sponsored activity or event, or any activity or event that bears a reasonable relationship to school.
- Traveling to and from school or a school activity, function or event; and
- Anywhere, if the conduct is deemed unreasonable by a staff member, or interferes with school purposes or an educational function.

Zero Tolerance Behaviors

Most disagreements and lack of respect situations can be handled directly; however, some actions and activities are considered “zero” tolerance situations. Zero tolerance means that the behavior absolutely cannot be accepted. Some of these are governed by Federal and State Laws and have consequences beyond the school. Explanations of those behaviors follow.

Fighting:

Fighting may include pushing, shoving, excessive or unwelcome physical contact. Any student involved in fighting may be suspended from Forrest Bird Charter School, parent or guardian will be called, and a conference required. The conference will determine if there is a need to submit the student and their situation to the Charter Board with a recommendation for expulsion.

Possession or use of weapons, drugs, tobacco, or alcohol:

1. Student will be taken to the office.
2. Parent or guardian will be called.

3. Material will be taken by the school official.
4. Police will be notified.
5. Student will be suspended from school.
6. Student may be taken to the Charter Board for possible denial of continued attendance at FBCS.
7. Student may be readmitted to Forrest Bird Charter School only after fulfilling any and all requirements placed on him/her by the Board, and petitioning the Board for re-admittance.

Harassment, threats of violence, violent language, or physical violence:

Threatening someone or using violent language creates a very unsafe environment for school. If your language contains a threat or violent language you will be immediately removed from the classroom, with a possible suspension or recommendation for expulsion. Bullying will not be tolerated, whether it is in person or through the school IT network.

Sexual Harassment:

Not only is this not acceptable for students of Forrest Bird Charter School, but sexual harassment of any kind is against Federal law. The law does not allow inappropriate touching, stalking, pictures, offensive remarks or any other action that is deemed offensive. Any behavior that a student finds to be offensive may be harassment and should be reported to an administrator or teacher immediately.

Disrespect for facilities or school furnishings:

Vandalism will not be tolerated. Any student involved will be required to fix and/or pay for any damages that he/she causes. Suspension or expulsion from school could result from multiple or severe violations and students may also face charges.

Please note: The Forrest Bird Charter School has the right to not accept students who have been expelled from other school districts without a formal hearing with the FBCS Board.

Student Dress Code

The philosophy of our dress code at FBCS:

The FBCS dress code is intended to assist in the creation of a positive culture in our school. By creating a dress code, we can minimize the differences between students, promote positive attitudes toward learning and focus the student’s attention on schoolwork. In addition, the dress code provides a visible identity in our community and provides a sense of identity. The dress code is a cornerstone of our school and we ask parents to make sure that their student is appropriately dressed every day.

Internet Use Policy

Internet access and interconnected computer systems are available to FBCS students, faculty, and guests (users). Electronic networks, including the Internet, are a part of the FBCS instructional program in order to promote educational excellence by facilitating resource sharing, innovation, and communication.

In order for the FBCS to be able to continue to make its computer network and Internet access available, all students, staff, and guests (users) must take responsibility for appropriate and lawful use of this access. Users utilizing school-provided information services are responsible for good behavior online. The same general rules for behavior apply to users' use of school-provided computer systems. Users must understand that one person's misuse of the network and/or Internet access may jeopardize the ability of all users to enjoy such access. While the FBCS staff is authorized to take reasonable action to implement, supervise, and enforce the provisions of this policy, user cooperation in exercising and promoting responsible use of this access is required.

Acceptable use of information services is confined to educational purposes only. All use of the FBCS electronic network must be: (1) in support of education and/or research in furtherance of the FBCS stated educational goals; or, (2) for a legitimate school business purpose. Use of school-provided information services is a privilege, not a right. Users shall have no expectation of privacy in any data that are stored, transmitted, or received via the FBCS electronic network or FBCS computers. FBCS reserves the right to monitor, inspect, copy, review, and store – at any time and without prior notice – any and all usage of the computer network and/or Internet services and any and all information transmitted or received in connection with such usage.

Unacceptable Usage

The following are specifically considered unacceptable uses of school-provided information services and constitute a violation of this policy; this is not intended to be an exhaustive list, and other uses may be deemed unacceptable uses on a case-by-case basis.

- Uses that violate the law or encourage others to violate the law, including but not limited to: transmitting offensive or harassing messages; offering for sale or use any substance the possession or use of which is prohibited by FBCS policy; viewing, transmitting, or downloading pornographic materials or materials that encourage others to violate the law; intruding into the networks or computers of others; and/or, downloading or transmitting confidential information, trade secret information, or copyrighted materials.
- Uses that cause harm to others or damage to their property, including but not limited to: engaging in defamation (harming another's reputation by lies); employing another's password or some other user identifier that misleads message recipients into believing that someone other than the actual user is communicating; otherwise using another's access to the network or the Internet without authorization; uploading a worm, virus, other harmful form of programming or vandalism; participating in “hacking” activities or any form of unauthorized access to other computers, networks, or other information.

- Uses that jeopardize the security of student access and of the computer network or other networks on the Internet.
